

Guide to the Digital Forensic Process

Acquire

Our Analysts are skilled in the proper forensic acquisition of data from servers, desktops, laptops and smartphones (including iPhones, Blackberrys and Android based devices). Media can include hard drives, CD and DVD disks, memory sticks, external USB drives and backup tapes.

Authenticate

Verification of the data obtained is important in order to prove that the data is authentic from its source. Failure to do so could prove detrimental to the matter later in the process especially if litigation is involved or expected.

Analyze

Careful analysis of the data takes place to extract evidence of wrongdoing. Using state of the art tools allows us to find pieces of information that one would think would be long gone.

Reporting

Reporting can take several forms. Gathering up our results and presenting them to you in a complete and concise format and subsequently presenting testimony in a deposition or live trial.

Archiving

A perfect forensic image is retained at our secured facility for future use, whether its new information coming to light in an investigation or a civil matter going to trial several years after filing.

Swailles Differentiators

- Extensive Civil & Criminal Expertise
- Certified Forensic Examiners
- Experienced Expert Witness in Courts
- State Licensed Investigators
- Live Testimony Experience
- Digital Evidence Preservation Expertise

Swailles & Company, Inc., is a recognized leader in digital forensics & computer investigations, business investigations, due diligence investigations, security consulting, and pre-employment backgrounds & background screening, providing innovative solutions to corporations, law firms and private entities. Mitigating business risk through investigations and security management consulting is our business. TXDPS License Number A06659.

For more information, visit www.swailescomputerforensics.com

1800 Saint James Place
Suite 625
Houston, Texas 77056

713.977.7600
www.swailes.com
info@swailes.com

Copyright © Swailles & Company, Inc. All rights reserved. Swailles is a registered trademark of Swailles & Company, Inc.